

A NEW SONG CALLED THE MALISIA MAN

His in this town of high renown a lovely maid did dwell
She was a warriors daughter the truth to you I'll tell

She being proper in & handsome her parents only joy
She fell in love with a young man a bold Malisia boy

One evening as they walk'd along down by a shady grove
They both sat down together & they spoke concerning love
Her mother she step'd up to them which did the more dismay
And so she sherd part this fair maid from her bold Malisia boy

O mother, dearest mother pray do not be so severe
For this young man has won my heart the truth I will declare
Kingdoms & crowns I would lay down his presence to enjoy,
I would part all earthly treasures for my bold Malisia boy

O daughter dearest daughter what make's you speak so
To wed a poor Malisia boy the world for to rage
Is mine's delight both day & night poor females to destroy
You will rue the days you pass'd away with your poor Malisia boy

O mother dearest mother your talk is all in vain
For Lords Dukes & Earls their offers I'd disdain
I would rather live an humble life my time for him to employ
I would range the world over with my bold Malisia boy

O daughter dearest daughter why so you say so
To forsake your friends & parents for a man you don't know,
Is a noble trick I will go for yet great riches you'll enjoy
O do not throw yourself away on a poor Malisia boy

Had I all the money that demour had it true
Or the charms had I Aladdens lamp I could not my heart subdue
I freely would bestow it to my dear & only joy
For my heart lies in the bosom of my bold Malisia boy

Now to conclude & finish let the toast go merily round
And drink this loving couple's health their equals could be found

And may this lovely fair one gain both honour & renown
Her name I will no mention she's the pride of Calina town
